

What days do Elkhorn Lacrosse teams play games?

Historically the MAYLA conference had each team play one game Saturday morning and one game Sunday afternoon. The conference attempts their best to split half home games and half away games. Typically all age groups will be played at the same location to help families with multiple aged children.